“ I ve know Don most of my life. That is, my brother lived next to him for 18 years. And more recently my family and I the last 24 years. You could always count on a wave and a smile. Don was always around if you needed him. Whether it was advice, a hand, or just a listening ear. I will miss our time chatting on the porch, wading in the pool, and eating crabs together. Don only liked the legs, so that worked out well. He and his family are great neighbors. And you will be greatly missed. Please know you are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I will certainly miss his smile and wave. I always enjoyed having casual conversation when walking past his residence. Even though I only live across the street from him, in the summer he or Bev would offer up a drink if I was walking by. He always kept the outside of the house looking very nice. Lawn mowed and trimmed, snow removed, & even the water puddles swept dry. And he was always very willing to help any neighbor in need. May he rest in peace as he looks over Bev, Amy, & the rest of his family.
