“ My sincere condolences to the family. What a wonderful man. I am so happy that our paths crossed and that I had the opportunity to know him. He will surely be missed. Just look at that smile. May your memories be a comfort to you at this difficult time. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I was Richard's neighbor at Homewood. In spite of his hearing impairment, we were still able to communicate. He showed me his 40 some completed puzzles he kept under his bed. We would always greet each other with an arm bump or a handshake before entering the dining room. Sometimes I would push him back to his room in his wheelchair. He always thanked me with a smile. I will miss him.
