“ So sorry for your loss Gary and Angel. He was a wonderful man and will be missed a lot. I always enjoyed his company every morning at the store he would always tell me some days I talked too much lol. And hated it when I fussed over him if something was wrong like the time he caught his hand on the fridge door and put a little cut on his hand he was so mad bc I made him clean it and I put a band aid on it. The memory always makes me smile. My thoughts and prayers are with your family hopefully remember the good times like these in your time of sorrow
