“ Even though I met Sunny later in our lives I feel that I've lost a lifelong friend. He was indeed a kind and generous man, always willing to give of himself despite his busy schedule. His skills in the shop were undeniable but surpassed by his even greater humanity and the love in his heart for his family, especially his beloved Mary. In the end this is what really counts and how he shall always be remembered.

May God bless his family at this time of loss.

“ The world has lost a great person. He was always ready and willing to help whenever or wherever he could. He served on the board of the Hanover Area Arts Guild and the building committee for a number of years. A kind and soft spoken gentleman, who will be missed. Rest in peace my friend.
My deepest sympathy and prayers to all the family.

“ Sunny was a most humble, kind soul. I worked with Sunny in providing orders for his woodturning. He was always a gentle person and did a fantastic job. Additionally, he helped my son and his best friend to turn baseball bats while they were in their glory days in high school.

Reading of his passing, my heart hurts for the world who lost an amazing human being. Heaven is rejoicing at his coming home.

Woodworking lost another skilled craftsman. May Sunny rest in peace and prayers for his family.

Until we meet again, Michelle

“ What a skilled craftsman. Bill and I loved to visit Sunny in his shop and see first hand his unique craft. My sympathy to you, Mary, and your children. He truly fought the "good fight." You, Mary, were a loving and dedicated caregiver. Marianne Garrett
